

BULLETIN #27:

Permanent Closure of York Regional Road 99

The Highway 427 Expansion project is entering the later stages of construction. One of the remaining segments of the Expansion to be built is the section of Highway 427 between Highway 7 and Zenway Boulevard. This road is currently legally known as York Regional Road 99. It will be decommissioned so that the Highway 427 new alignment can be built in its place. Once completed, this segment will complete the Expansion's extension section, which runs 6.6 kilometres from Highway 7 in the south to Major Mackenzie Drive in the north.

The closure will remain in effect for two months. In order to upgrade this section of road to freeway standards and seamlessly integrate it into the rest of the Expansion, York Regional Road 99 will permanently close to all traffic on August 8, 2020.

Starting August 8, 2020, all northbound traffic on Highway 427 will terminate at the Highway 7 interchange and all southbound traffic must access Highway 427 from the Highway 7 interchange. Upon the opening of the Highway 427 Expansion project there will not be an interchange at Zenway Boulevard.

Traffic volumes on surrounding roadways (below) are expected to temporarily increase once York Regional Road 99 is permanently closed, until the opening of the Highway 427 Expansion. Please allow extra travel time and drive with caution on the following impacted roadways:

- Vaughan Valley Boulevard
- New Huntington Road
- Zenway Boulevard
- Highway 7
- Highway 27
- Highway 50

Also, if possible please consider using alternate routes to avoid this area.

A signed detour route is being provided to guide motorists to / from Highway 427 and Zenway Blvd. Detour map is provided below:
